

Support and Supervision for Community Health Workers

April 8 & 9, 2021 ★ 9am - 12:30pm

Learn skills, resources and industry knowledge to supervise CHWs with mindfulness and humility, and set them up for success.

7 CEUs are available upon completion of both days. $150 general admission, $40 ORCHWA members, and free for ORCHWA Collaborative Partners (CEW/HOWTO).

FACILITATORS: Shanaquewa Finney & Yesi Castro, of ORCHWA

By the end of the workshop participants will be able to:

- ★ Explain basics of the CHW model, such as: who CHWs are, what they do, and how their work is related to health equity;
- ★ Define “supervision” and identify different models of supervision;
- ★ Identify the qualities and skills of an effective CHW supervisor;
- ★ Explain the concept of “trauma-informed supervision” and how it applies to supporting and supervising CHWs, and
- ★ Practice self-care as a supervisor.

Register online, capacity is limited!

ORCHWA
Oregon Community Health Workers Association